Hi Suzy,

I am copying Leslie Ito, CEO of the Japanese American Cultural and Community Center, on this email. She is the best person to contact in addressing your needs and can put you in touch with the person in charge of facilities.

I look forward to possibly attending an upcoming LA Times event at JACCC.

Best,

Ellen

Hi Ellen!

Thanks so much for participating in our recent event. I heard the panel had a fantastic conversation, despite a lighter crowd than normal. Thank you again.

I wanted to see if you can put us in touch with the folks who rent out the spaces in the Cultural Center? We are interested in renting one of them for our next forums possibly.

Thanks so much!
Suzy

If it's okay, can we meet at the Japanese American Cultural and Community Center, 244 S. San Pedro St.? We will be in the Cultural Room. Take the elevator to the 5th floor. When you reach the 5th floor, the Cultural Room will be immediately to your right.

Ahhh, food--my favorite subject. As I often say, there are 100 restaurants in Little Tokyo. We look forward to getting involved with the Food Bowl in some way.

Should we start with a meeting?

Hi Ellen and Joanne,

Hope you both are well and healthy and that things are blooming in Little Tokyo.

I'd like to connect you with Suzy Jack, VP of Public Affairs & Events, and some of her LA Times team. LA Times is producing a month-long food-focused festival in May called Food Bowl. As a key confluence of food and culture, I would like to see the Little Tokyo community as engaged and involved as possible. Suzy and her team can provide more info.

Suzy, Ellen oversees the Little Tokyo Business Association (LTBA) and Joanne runs the Little Tokyo BID.

Happy connecting!

Hi Ari!

Hope all is well! Thanks again for coming out to the HS Insider event. It was wonderful having the Councilmember and your team there.

I was wondering if you can make an introduction to the best person for us to talk to from Little Tokyo as it relates to Food Bowl. We want to reach out and make sure they're included!!

Thanks for your help!

Suzy
